The Beer Board is authorized to place any and all limitations or restrictions it deems necessary on temporary permits, including but not limited to hours of sales and number of locations. Should special called meetings of the Beer Board be necessary to consider temporary permit applications or follow-up applications other than days and times that the Beer Board or City Council are scheduled to meet, the applicant will be required to pay the same fee for special called meetings as prescribed in the City's current fees schedule. The exact dates and locations of each event must be approved by the beer board at the time of issuance of the permit, or if exact dates or locations are not known at the time of permit issuance, subsequent approval at a future beer board meeting must be obtained prior to the event.
